

This agreement outlines both our responsibilities as co-collaborators of your transformation. Upon agreement and payment, a copy of these terms will be emailed to you. I will contact you within 24 hours to schedule your appointment.

My Intention:

My intention is to help identify some of the patterns that are holding you back from fully experiencing a life filled with abundance and infinite possibilities. I work with those who are committed to change and who are ready to love themselves wholeheartedly.

My services are tailored to meet your unique desires and goals, creating a safe space that embodies truth and transformation. I will come to you with an open heart, attentive listening, understanding, belief in you and commitment to your success.

I do not provide medical diagnosis, or consultations related to health, medical or psychiatric issues; nor does my services serve as substitute for medical or psychological diagnosis and treatment. It is recommended you see a licensed physician or licensed healthcare professional for any physical or psychological ailments you may have.

I am bound to abide by the International Coach Federation Code of Ethics, the American Board of Hypnotherapy, and National Association of Transpersonal Hypnotherapists.

Any information, stories, examples or testimonials presented on the Sol Discovery website do not constitute a warranty, guarantee, or prediction regarding the outcome of a treatment with Sol Discovery. You may not disseminate, modify, copy, in whole or in part, such copyrighted material unless specifically permitted to do so by Jennifer Emperador (dba Sol Discovery). By continuing to explore this website, or choosing to respond with and receive any coaching or energy sessions from Sol Discovery, you agree to all of the above.

Terms of Success:

Co-collaboration is a process that takes discipline, action, and commitment. Depending on the need, sessions can be handled by in person or by phone. I highly encourage you to invest in your own well-being and to be patient and compassionate during the process of your personal growth.
